

Dan Peetz and Nancy Settles-Baker of Skyline Physical Therapy attended the Nebraska Dental Associations Annual Session event in March, 2014 to promote physical therapy information and provide education for local dental professionals. Skyline Physical Therapy works closely with dentists to treat orafacial pain and TMD (temporomandibular joint disorder). Nancy, being a licensed massage therapist, was also kind enough to offer complimentary chair massages!

